Automobile Party.

An automobile party of which Miss Jennie Newell, of this city, was the hostess and Miss Rosa E. Noe, of Norfolk, Va., the guest of honor, proved an enjoyable social episode of Tuesday last. Among Miss Newell's guests for this occasion were Misses Agnes Gulek, Rose, Miss Noe, Miss Harrie, Jennie Newell, Mr. Frank Moltz, Mrs. Carroll Hagan, Mrs. Samuel Harrison and Mrs. Cassie Newell. After the outing the party returned to luncheon at the Jefferson Hotel.

Returned to Richmond.

Miss Lily Price and Miss Elise Parkinson, daughter of Mr. James T. Parkinson, of No. 96 West Franklin Street, have returned to Richmond after a year's sojourn in Tucson, Arizona.

Friends of Miss Price will be interested to know that she is for the present at the Chestnutfield, Miss Parkinson has entirely regained her health and is quite prepared to resume her popular place in Richmond society.

Shortly before Miss Price left, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harwood arrived in Tucson. Miss Price reports them as pleasantly situated there and Mr. Harwood as being in fine condition and spirits. Miss Isabel Hill and her brother, Mr. Lewis Hill, are also spending some time in Tucson which has quite a little Richmond and Virginia colony.

Much Interest Felt Here.

Many Richmond friends were interested in the wedding of Miss Rebekah Harvey Barrett, daughter of Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett and the late Rev. Robert S. Barrett, to Mr. Whitman Rathbone Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Smith, of South St. Marie, Ontario, Canada, which took place at 9 o'clock last Tuesday evening in St. Paul's Church, Alexandria.

The bride, who was given away by her uncle, Mr. Alfred P. Pike, of Southport, England, was very charming in white satin, with a berthe and collar of rose point lace. A reception at the home of the bride's mother followed immediately after the ceremony. The house was decorated in palms and cut flowers, and the bride and groom received the congratulations of the guests under a canopy of Oriental drapery decorated with American, English and Canadian flags. Refreshments were served under a marquee on the lawn.

The presents were both numerous and beautiful. Among the handmaiden gifts received was a beautiful silver tea service given by Mr. Smith's corps of engineers and the officials, as a token of their esteem. Members of the Marine Band furnished the orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home in Links, Ontario, where Mr. Smith is employed as a civil engineer by one of the Canadian railroads.

Among the out-of-town guests were Senator and Mrs. Lamar, Senator and Mrs. Davis, Senator De Nesit, Mrs. Robert S. Barrett, of Mexico; Baron de Kattenack, and Dr. Howard Kelley, of Baltimore.

A Delightful Trip.

A very pleasant party, chaperoned by Miss Laura Harrison, left Richmond Wednesday morning to visit the Luray Caverns and Natural Bridge. The trip was a most interesting and delightful one. The party was composed of the following: Miss Maud Duke, Mr. Daniel, Miss L. Gasser, the Misses Garber, Mr. Gasser, Master O. Gasser, Miss Minnie Grimmell, Miss Laura Harrison, Mr. Johnson, Miss Johnson, Mr. Jones, the Misses King, Miss Emma Porr, Miss Mamie Jordan, Mrs. Floyd Reams, Mrs.

MR. AND MRS. E. STANLEY JEFFRESS.

Miss Louise McClelland and Mr. E. Stanley Jeffress were quietly married in Washington on Saturday, May 12th, which was quite a surprise to their many friends.

Miss McClelland is the daughter of Mr. William A. McClelland, who was for years one of the leading men of Rockbridge county. She comes from an old and well-known family of Revolutionary fame. She is a registered nurse, and has risen high in the ranks of her chosen profession, having been superintendent of several of the leading hospitals of the State, and is a graduate of one of the most prominent Northern training schools.

The groom is the son of Mr. E. H. Jeffress, of Keyville, who was one of the leading men of that town, having served throughout the Civil War. Mr. Jeffress is connected with the government service and is now stationed in Lynchburg. He also comes from one of the oldest families in the State.

The marriage ceremony took place at St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church at five-thirty, the Rev. P. W. Jeffress officiating. Although it was quite sudden, the church was tastefully decorated with palms and growing plants. Mrs. Webb, of Clifton Forge, was matron of honor, and Mr. Luther C. Jeffress, of Richmond—brother of the groom—best man. After the marriage the bride party were entertained at a most delightful dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Jeffress left on Monday for Lynchburg, where they will be at home to their friends at the Arlington Hotel.
